
Involvement with the Innovation Hub

If preferred the data required below can be sent to the Innovation Hub by email to fintech@fi.ee.

Company name and legal form

Registry code

Company address

Website

Contact person name

Email

Telephone

Description

FinTech (providing financial services)

Financial company with an authorisation

Technology company (providing support solutions for financial service providers)

Technology company (providing supervisory solutions)

Other (details)

If other, then please specify

Status of the product or service or risk control solution

Idea

R&D phase

Testing

In use

Description of the proposed product or service or risk control solution; the innovative aspect of the product or service or risk control solution, especially what differentiates it from solutions already in use

The technologies used in the product or service or risk control solution and how

The target group and market for the product or service or risk control solution

Value added for clients

The development programme for the product or service or risk control solution

Initial legal analysis of regulations that may apply

The risks to the company and management of them

The risks to clients from the product or service or risk control solution

Capital or funding for activities

The connection of the product or service or risk control solution to Estonia

I confirm that the company and its managers have not been convicted of an economic, professional, property or public trust offence or of financing or supporting a terrorist crime or activities aimed at committing one.

Questions for Finantsinspeksioon about the application of the solution

Leave this field blank